

either... or both ... and neither ... nor

Remember:

1. Complete the sentences with either... or, both ... and or neither ... nor.

- _____ Louise _____ Edna will be at school today, because they're ill.
- It doesn't matter where we study. We can _____ meet here _____ at your house.
- There was a jeans sale, so Lori bought _____ a blue pair _____ a black pair.
- We didn't go out to dinner last night, as _____ Greg _____ I had money.

2. Complete the sentences with either... or, both ... and or neither ... nor.

Guess what! I'm coming to Oxford this weekend, to visit ¹ _____ my grandmother _____ some of the colleges. And, of course, you! I'd be able to see you ² _____ on Friday evening _____ on Sunday afternoon, so let me know which is better for you. Maybe we could even get together on ³ _____ Friday _____ Sunday! That would be great! I can't wait to get away for the weekend – I've had lots of schoolwork and have had ⁴ _____ the time _____ the energy lately to go out and have a good time. See you in a few days!

3. Write a sentence to follow each original sentence. Use the correct form of the words in brackets and either... or, both ... and or neither ... nor. One sentence can be written in more than one way.

- This is a vegetarian restaurant. (they / serve / meat / fish / here)
- I want these coats, but I can only afford one. (buy / grey / green)
- We've made all the final arrangements for our holiday. (go / Jamaica / Martinique)

Either the cake or the cookies are on sale.

Either the cookies or the cake is on sale.

(The noun after "or" determines whether we need a singular or plural verb. The same rule applies to "neither" and "nor.")

Neither the cake nor the cookies are on sale.

Neither the cookies nor the cake is on sale.