C Useful verbs

A maths teacher teaches maths. Her students study maths.

After school, students do homework.

At primary school, children learn to read and write.

A university teacher gives a lecture on chemistry and the students take notes.

Students can do an (English) course in many colleges and schools. At the end of a course, you often have to take/do an exam. You hope to pass your exams. You don't want to fail your exams.

If you pass your final exams at university, you get a degree.

48.2 Look at the subjects in A. Which were your favourite subjects? Which did you not like?

48.3 How many of the ten objects can you remember? Write them down in English.

48.4 Which of the things in B opposite have you got in the room where you study English? Write down the words for everything you can see.

48.5 Choose a verb from C opposite to fill the gaps below. Put the verb in the correct form.

John did well at school. He always found it easy to (1) learn and he always (2) finished his homework. He (3) passed all his school exams. Now he (4) studies geography at university. He is also (5) taking a special geology course. He enjoys sitting in lectures, listening to the lecturer and (6) taking notes. He will (7) pass his final exams next year. If he (8) fails, he will (9) lose a degree in geography. If he (10) loses, he will be very sad. He would like to become a geography lecturer. He would like to (11) give lectures.

48.6 Choose the ten words from the opposite page which you most want to learn. Write them down in one column on a piece of paper and in a second column put a drawing (or a translation or a definition). Cover the words in the first column and look at the second column. Can you remember the words?
