

After Reading Writing

- 1 Make a list of six important places in your neighborhood and use symbols to identify them.

Example: bank $

_____	○	_____	○
_____	○	_____	○
_____	○	_____	○

- 2 Draw a map of your neighborhood. You can use the symbols to identify the different places.

Example:

Tips

Revision and rewriting are important parts of creating a text. Other people's suggestions and comments can be useful for you.

My Neighborhood

69

- 3 Where are the places? Exchange your map with a classmate and write a short description mentioning the places in their map. Use Javiera and Diego's description as a model. (page 64)

- 4 Read your classmate's description of your map. Is it accurate? Make the necessary corrections.

Language

Use there is and there are to mention places you can find in the neighborhood.

Tips

Deleting unnecessary information is a vital part of revising a text. This is especially important for types of texts where specific information is the objective of your writing.

Complementary
Digital Activities

