

So happy together!

Talk about relationships

In this unit we will ...

talk about relationships

respond to news

write a blog post about a problem

Vocabulary

Relationships

1 Look at the people in the picture story. How do you think they are feeling? Make a list of their emotions.

2 033 Match the expressions with the pictures. Then listen, check, and repeat.

- ☐ be interested in the same things
- ☐ share each other's things
- ☐ be attracted to someone
- ☐ get to know someone
- ☐ communicate well together

- ☐ date someone
- ☐ spend time together
- ☐ take a break
- ☐ enjoy his / her company

3 Pairwork Retell the story. Take turns to say sentences.

The girl saw the boy.
She was attracted to him.

Then ...

Link to life How do you usually react if someone disagrees with you?

Relationship expressions

- 4  034 Read and listen Translate the expressions in bold into your own language.

Relationship forum

Please help! I think my girlfriend might be interested in my best friend. He often hangs out with the two of us and they're always laughing and joking together. I got angry with her and now I feel stupid. I know she'd never cheat on me, but I can't stop worrying.

ed2001

Just because she likes your friend doesn't mean she's in love with him! If you're dating someone, you need to trust that person.

loulou44

It's nice that your friend has things in common with your girlfriend. You need to make up with her after your argument and chill! Don't stop being friends with him!

- 5 Complete the sentences with prepositions.

- I'm not angry. I made  with Becca.
- Sam and Troy don't hang  now. They aren't friends  each other anymore.
- Can you believe that Brad cheated  Albany?
- I have a lot in common  Chris, but that doesn't mean that I'm  love with him.

- 6 Pairwork Think about a friendship or a romantic relationship. Choose from the ideas in the box.
